

Characteristics of

Gifted Children

- Excellent Memory
- Rapid Learners
- Large Vocabulary
- High energy, alert, likes new challenges
- Sensitive, intuitive, empathetic
- Curious, asks questions
- Diversity of interests, hobbies and activities
- Ability to conceptualize, analyze, problem solve
- Self-taught
- Keen sense of humor

G.A.T.E.way to Learning

K-4 Schools

Abia Judd

Lincoln

Taylor Hicks

karen.sampson@prescottschools.com

928-710-7428

School: What to Expect

Personalized care of each student to encourage optimal growth and achievement

STEM opportunities EiE - Engineering is Elementary

Cluster classes offering higher level thinking skills, creativity, advanced learning with rigor

Technology - effective adaptive learning programs, research, interest-based projects

Foreign Language Learning through Duolingo For Schools

Educaching- integration of higher math, P.E., and community through geocaching

Field Trips - Enhancing curriculum, expanding horizons

Tips for Nurturing Gifted Children

Check out online resources- So much is available to help you understand and recognize the needs of your gifted child.

Appreciate gifted learners as children. They need love, guidance, and creative pursuits.

Be your child's advocate by working together with teachers.

Model life-long learning habits.

Assure your child that being different is okay; appreciate individual differences in others.

Online Resources for Parents of Gifted Children

www.arizonagifted.org

AAGT - Arizona Association for Gifted and Talented

www.nagc.org

NAGC - National Association for Gifted Children

sengifted.org

SENG - Supporting Emotional Needs of the Gifted

www.hoagiesgifted.org

Hoagies' Gifted Education Page